R: I am so excited to tell you about how Lottie the pink axolotl used gumption to race bubbles. Let's begin! (TELLS STORY) Sarah, did you like the story?
P: Yes yes, hold on, don't go to sleep, just, I'll go up and show you my pink axolotls stuffy (CHILD RUNS AWAY).
R: What a bright pink idea! Let's remember what happened in the story. What did Lottie do when she used her gumption in the story?
P: (FROM FAR AWAY) Hold on Ella. Please. (CHILD RUNS BACK WITH HER AXOLOTL TOY)
R: Hmm, I see you're thinking about Lottie's gumption
P: [This is my axolotl.(SHOWS TOY) Kuta! Kuta!]
R: [Gumption means being brave and trying]...

R: Isabella, can you think of a fun adventure you would like to have?
P: I want to go to Disney World and ride on Mount Everest.
R: It sounds like you love big adventures! I'm thinking an adventure is a fun, special trip where you try new things. Which part of your Disney World or Everest adventure would be the most exciting?
P: When I went on Mount Everest. That's a roller coaster and I went on it. when I went down and everyone screaming because it was so fun and when it
R: (INTERUPTING) I see you love big adventures! An adventure is a fun, special trip where you try new things. Do you think the roller coaster is more exciting or scary?
P: Um, more fun.
R: You said the roller coaster was more fun! A fun adventure can be exciting and brave ....
